2020 Ohio Rural Health Conference August 12-14, 2020

VIRTUAL CONFERENCE | Attend from Anywhere

You play a critical role in ensuring rural healthcare thrives, now and into the future. Connect with healthcare practitioners, administrators and advocates for rural health across Ohio on today's most pressing matters, from COVID-19 to mental health in agricultural communities and beyond.

Attend live virtual presentations from 18 different speakers along three different tracks:

- Critical Access Hospitals
- Population Health
- Rural Health Clinics

Your registration includes:

- Virtual accessibility
- Live access to conference speaker presentations
- Access to recordings after conference ends
- Poster session access
- Vendor and exhibitor links
- Free, one-year membership in the Ohio Rural Health Association

Register for free today by visiting ohioruralhealth.org/2020-conference

Call for Submissions | Submission Deadline: July 27

Showcase your research, advocacy or service/educational programs in our virtual poster session. Guidelines and submission information are available by visiting ohioruralhealth.org/poster-submission.

Supported by the Ohio Rural Health Association, the State Office of Rural Health, the Appalachian Rural Health Institute, and the Department of Social and Public Health at Ohio University.

* Live conference presentations will include auto-captioning.
